Hi ! My name is Logan, I am 18 years old, I am from France and I will introduce you to French culture. I am in Macedonia in Prilep for 2 months and I will talk about my first feelings on this country.

I arrived in Macedonia a week ago. The first night in all honesty I felt a little lost it was a little culture shock for me and after the night passed a new day started and I visited the village of Prilep and I found it super beautiful and different from France. I get used to it as the days go by and today I feel great it's the start of a beautiful experience for me.

I lived in the north for 12 years and 6 years in the South of France and I will introduce you to the different cultures and activities to do in France.
